Philippians (N.T. Wright For Everyone Bible Study Guides)

Synopsis

Things don't always go the way we intend. It's easy to feel discouraged because what we hope for is badly thwarted, or because people make life difficult. Paul, writing to the Philippians from prison, certainly knew what it was like to have plans interrupted. But he maintains robust confidence in God's overruling power, even when everything seems to be going wrong. These eight studies will help us learn from Paul the art of seeing God's purposes working out through problems and difficulties, and will deepen our own confidence in God's power.

"Tom Wright is a gift to the church today. In this series, Christians who are just learning about their faith will experience new discoveries and fresh views on life, and seasoned Bible readers will find themselves challenged to reconsider old perspectives. It deserves to be in the homes of all Christians." (Scot McKnight, author of The King Jesus Gospel)

A prolific writer of both scholarly and popular books, N. T. Wright has written over thirty books, including Simply Christian, The Original Jesus, What Saint Paul Really Said, The Challenge of Jesus, The Meaning of Jesus, Jesus and the Victory of God and the magisterial Paul and the Faithfulness of God. His N. T. Wright For Everyone Series includes commentaries covering the entire New Testament. Formerly bishop of Durham in England, Wright is research professor of New Testament and early Christianity at the University of St Andrews in Scotland. He was formerly canon theologian of Westminster Abbey and dean of Lichfield Cathedral. He also taught New Testament studies for twenty years at Cambridge, McGill and Oxford Universities. He has been a visiting professor at Harvard Divinity School, Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Gregorian University in Rome and many other institutions around the world. In addition to his many books, Wright reaches a broad audience through his frequent media appearances. A sought-after commentator, Wright writes frequently for newspapers in England, including the Times, the Independent and the Guardian. He has been interviewed numerous times by radio and television broadcasters on both sides of the Atlantic, including ABC, NBC, CNN, PBS and NPR. Dale Larsen is a writer living in Rochester, Minnesota. He and his wife, Sandy, have written more than thirty books and Bible studies together including Living Your Legacy and more than ten LifeGuide® Bible studies. They have also coauthored eight N.T. Wright for Everyone Bible Study Guides with Wright. Sandy Larsen is a writer living in Rochester, Minnesota. I'm really enjoying this workbook long with his commentary.

Was hoping for something a little more substantial from NT. Lots of good discussion questions but not enough material for people to dig into.

great study, gets you going deeper into Paul's ministry and his affect on the world he preached to....Jews and Gentiles.

I really liked this Bible study. If you're a Bible study leader you can just facilitate and read from the book. Answering the questions helps me to understand the scripture better.

Excellent study guide. Interesting that the author thinks Paul wrote this from Ephesus while most scholars I found think he was in Rome. But, that's incidental. The scriptures speak for themselves and the questions are excellent guides for discussion.

When our Sunday School class first started to use this book, i found the questions to be boring and unhelpful. They weren't giving me any new insights at all, and our class discussion was not happening. Further into the book, I have found some helpful insights. To be honest, I was hoping for a lot more commentary, rather than mainly a list of questions for each Biblical section. But I am grateful for some questions which did give me a new vision of what the theology of Paul was about. Considering how much NT Wright has studied the works of Paul, it could be meatier.

LOVE the study guides.
