Being new to ballet, this is a good book to learn the history and themes of many ballets. It prepared me well to see, enjoy and understand my first ballets. A good long-term reference.

This book has well defined segments to get to just the dance in question. It isn't too wordy and is clearly written.

It is a good book. My daughter is using it for university thesis.

Great for ballet study, you should read if dancer. Font is small or would rate higher.

This great book was given to me as a gift decades ago and I lost it in the moving process. I'm glad I can replenish my library with books from here!

I ordered this book to keep at our ballet studio so my students could educate themselves on the wonderful stories of ballet.

This book is great! Helps you to understand what you are watching when seeing one of the great ballets. Even details some obscure ballets.

Major ballets are ignored in favor of numerous pseudo ballets that are rarely done and many that will probably never be done again, and--in any case--are essentially plotless. Definitely not the book it pretends to be. Extremely disappointing and useless.
