Customer Reviews

I was looking at all the ABC (Aruba, Bonaire, Curacao) travel guides trying to find the best one with the most information about Curacao and this is it. The others, I had heard from product reviews, contained only brief mentions of activities on Curacao. This book is the best source I've been able to find about the island all while containing contact information and pricing for all the suggested things to do. I'm planning a honeymoon, and I wondered if Curacao would have enough to hold my interests. This book put those fears to rest. Now I'm left wishing I'll have more time on the island. TL;dr: Nicely done book with loads of facts. The best resource I've found anywhere about the island.

The book was up-to-date (as of July 2013), well written, and covered all of the important sites on the island. The maps were not detailed enough, especially for driving, so be sure to pick up a better map when you get there. The restaurant recommendations were okay. Overall, this was a good guide book for Curacao. And the island was great!

This book--along with the street map we received at the rental car counter--was our vacation "bible." It provided in-depth descriptions of the most popular tourist attractions and restaurants and listed many more off the beaten path. It was definitely a good investment!

Ok guide, provides basic information about the island, I have seen a lot of things that the guide should have mentioned, not sure whomever wrote the book actually went there pretty good guide and is focused just on Curacao. Most guides include the other 2 ABC islands as well.

The perfect book for first time visitors to Curacao. I'm glad I bought it and will take it with me.

Interesting, informative and well written. It was very helpful to organize my trip to Curacao! Would definitely read more from this author. Thanks Lynne

Great book and Island
