Customer Reviews

There are several maps--downtown, city, area, etc. Each was relevant and very useful. It's not like they picked the views randomly, someone was thinking (or had traveled/visited Kyoto before!).

Perfect for us as we navigated around Kyoto for a week. Highly recommend this if you're going to get yourself around (via bus, subway, walking, etc). Everything was in English. It was sturdy enough to last the week with us taking it out and looking at it and putting it away 100s of times (or so it seemed!).

My daughter and I stayed this summer in a machiya home in a quiet Kyoto neighborhood off of Niomon-dori. Between Google maps on our smartphone, this Periplus Kyoto folding map, and a mobile app for JR trains schedules, we navigated various days trips in Kyoto and beyond (Nara, Ohara, Osaka) with ease. Held up to daily use, and we will certainly use it again on a return trip to Kyoto next year.

Not good enough for living outside the tourist area. I wish it had more detail for the north east area.
