Rhodes On Italian Roads: Discovering And Rediscovering The Magic Of Italy

Synopsis

NOTE: This is the same book as Rhodes on Italian Roads, Version 1, with black and white photos instead of color. If you love travel books, this is the one you need to read next. Accompany two senior travelers on their tenth trip to Italy. Enjoying a full two months on this trip, they visit famous sites and lesser known ones with abundant curiosity and enthusiasm. Using blog and journal entries written while traveling, Jeane and Larry Rhodes bring the reality of traveling in Italy to life, including both the challenges and the rewards. This book will also appeal to those who must travel on a budget, but are far past the age of enjoying hostels and sleeping in train stations. In these pages you will learn: > The importance of planning and the importance of being open to unplanned surprises. > The advantages (and challenges) of traveling off-season > The individuality of the travel experience (how two people can experience the same thing differently) You will find bonus pages at the end of the book, providing travel tips, and details on Airbnb rentals, hotels, restaurants. These pages will inspire you to begin planning your next trip!
