Good only for the main line information, outdated at best and has wrong data printed for Moorea (with a restaurant since closed that is located on the map on the opposite side of the island.

I looked at this map at a fantastic store that only sells maps. Visually, this map looks great. It provides a great deal of detail and outlines all the Society Islands. The problem? It clearly is outdated. For example, looking at the section on Bora Bora, it provides the locations of hotels that have not been there for years (such as the nonexistent Hyatt). This map might be useful for driving but I would question its accuracy.
