Behavior improvement strategies for the child with ADHD

Wish I had been introduced to this product way sooner!!! Keeping my house in order with three against one has been an uphill trudge on extremely rocky terrain. The CDs give me confidence, allow me to learn techniques to aid in my parenting. Over these single motherhood years, my relationship with Google and has intensified, due to my desire to learn to parent effectively and compassionately. This has been a wonderful addition to my life and I certainly recommend it.

Not realistic for everyday working parents...

Great resource! I have an ADHD 11 yr old and this transformed our household!
