Bad Day For The Gunman: A Texan Adventure (Law In Pecan Township Series Book 3)

Synopsis

An exciting new Western in from bestselling Western author P.W. Burroughs in the style of Robert J. Thomas, WL Cox, and Duane Boehm. This is a Western filled with action, adventure and plot twists such as C. K. Crigger, Robert Vaughan, and C.M. Curtis! This is an action-packed Western that puts the gun in your hand... and asks you to take courage and fire! Pecan Township is under bizarre attack by a furiously deranged young local farm boy named Trey Saints, shunned in his own hometown after his father, Gerald Saints is hung for the rape and murder of a Black Rock woman. When his mother takes her own life in shame, he cracks and goes on a murder rampage that even today stands out as one of the most brutal assaults ever recorded in Texas. Only one man, U.S. Marshall Nat Howards, a.k.a. "Vigilante" can track the clever and intuitive Trey Saints down and bring him to justice. But the young Marshall knows that he has to hurry if he wants to stop the victims adding up that are causing wide-spread panic throughout the grand state of Texas and testing his own nerves of steel to the limit. P.W. Burroughs takes his readers on a mindless, cold-blooded murdering in the mind of a desperately lonely young farmer in the hot and desolate background of Pecan Township in central Texas. So if you like reading Brad Dennison, Dave P. Fisher, and Lou Bradshaw, then you'll love "Bad Day For The Gunman!"
