During his life, anthropologist John J. Bodine was recognized as a preeminent authority on the Taos Pueblo. His heart-felt commitment to the Taos Pueblo and its people is still felt today. He died in 1998 in Taos, New Mexico.

Great history of Taos Pueblo and its people.

My daughter loved it.

Love this little book. Great pics and so informative!

This is a packed pamphlet. This is not only a map of time but also a map of the pueblo. There are a few black and white photographs and the book is divided in to tow parts one for the tour and the other for the history. Items covered in the walk though include: The Mountains The north side

pueblo
Outside ovens and drying racks
The Kivas
The pueblo wall
The river or Pueblo Creek
The south side pueblo
The mission of St. Jerome
The ruined church and cemetery
As you can see this is useful even if you never visit but is indispensable for visitors.
