Customer Reviews

Ms. Correa is the former Allied Health Educational Coordinator at City University of New York at Queens College. Responsible creating and developing curricula for several Queens College Allied Health certificate programs, including Medical Assistant, she now develops satellite courses for adult education programs. Her clinical experience extends to both private practice and administrative hospital work in oncology, cardiovascular surgery, pulmonology, and thoracic surgery. Ms. Correa also works on technical writing and software development projects, and serves on advisory boards for technical colleges in her home state of Colorado.

Book is easy to follow the directions. Program is user friendly. Situations in the book are modern and not outdated.

easy to follow step by step activites

Order was received within a week of the order and was exactly as described-in new condition. Very impressed with service and product

Information in this book is Great....

Great Reference and textbook. It is working well with my billing class and I hope to be able to do well with my certification test. I also love the way it works with the textbook and online features. Will definitely use as a reference tool and for preparing for the exam.
