Customer Reviews

I've been creating images for this calendar since 2007, and this one is my favorite so far. Each image was made in the past two years, and I featured a number of collectors from South Dakota as well tractors and machines from Wisconsin, Indiana, and Michigan. One of my favorite shots is of Wilbur Goehring's fantastic Super M LP. The tractor was immaculate, and the shot came at the end of an evening session. Wilbur was leaned up against his machine as the sun was setting behind him. The shot, to me, expresses the link between a restored tractor and an owner--it's one of my favorites in the past few years! Jason Sweeter had a very special situation. He had two V-8-powered Internationals he had restored--one a 1468 and the other a gorgeous red four-wheel-drive IH truck. Jason was game to meeting at an abandoned farmhouse at dawn, and we set up the lights, arranged the equipment, and waited for the sun to rise on a blustery September morning. The result was worth getting up early and freezing in the wind! After the shot of the V-8s, Jason and I hurried back to his farm where he had Orren Sorenson's Cub Lo-Boy. We ran the machine out into the field behind his house, and the chilly night had put a light coating of frost on the corn stubble. The early morning sun on the frosted corn made a great setting for the little tractor! Coy Winslow's machine is one of the cleanest I've seen, and his Dad's farm was equally immaculate. Mark Parker's 3088 attracted crowds at RPRU 2013, and for good reason--his chromed 3088 is an exercise in excess well worth a look. The chrome positively gleams in the images. I'm also partial to the original condition A514 diesel. Original condition machines give a special patina, and this wacky Australian model always has people scratching their heads due to the odd conglomeration of parts the Australian engineers put together. I hope y'all enjoy it! Cheers, Lee Klancher
