Olatokunbo Esho is a Media professional with over a decade of experience in Publishing, Advertising and Marketing. He worked at Creative Affairs Ltd., a Printing and Packaging Company and rose to be the head of production, supervising various printing equipment worth over 300 Million Naira, manned by over 50 employees. At LCL Ltd. (now Etchwise Consulting Ltd.), he heads the publishing department and has been directly responsible for the design and production of over a 500 book/Magazine publications. Tokunbo heads the team that serves as the representative of several International Printing Companies, as their Agent in West Africa.

A well-written and well-reported historical facts and stories about Nigeria. The book provides a balanced and diverse exploration of how Nigeria as a country, has transformed over the past decade. This book has really increased my knowledge about Nigeria, and will be useful in the write-up/case study I'm working on.
