Customer Reviews

Founded in 1996, Indianapolis-based TF Publishing (TFP) is one of the nations top publishers of calendars and dated stationery products. I've bought this brand of calendars for the last couple years and I love how big it is and how you can have a line or two for everyone in the house. Makes it so much easier to separate out who needs to do what each day. I just wish I could have found the regular 12 month calendar instead of the 17 month...those additional 5 months are just wasted for me.

Exactly what I wanted! Unfortunately it doesn't come with a cattle prod to make me keep up with it on a regular basis, but my laziness is no fault of the product. LOL.

I love the size and the grid lines per person. I especially like the material, not just thin paper. I use washi tape and it moves around on this calendar well.

Very handy in organizing who is doing what...especially so my husband knows what the rest of the family's schedule is! It also winds up being in the same visualization as a normal calendar layout which is nice!

I love this calendar! I buy it every year. I think this was my 4th year in a row. I love how it has a spot for each family member. I use the extra spaces for "all" family events and "misc" like bday's and such. The spaces are small but when you have one for each person you don't really need a whole lot of room. Great calendar for busy families!!

I order this calendar every year. It has separate sections for each member of the family to avoid confusion. It is made of a heavy-duty paper so the tabs don't tear even though we take it on/off its hook a lot.

Love this calendar. Great how you can write the names along the edge and it applies to every month.

Great calendar with lots of room to keep track of events for each member of the family. The one thing it could use are reinforced holes where it hangs. After taking the calendar on and off the wall several times, the hole where the thumbtack goes, eventually rips through.
