Customer Reviews

Austrian composer Franz Schubert (1797–1828) was the first of the great Romantics. In addition to his nine symphonies, he wrote more than 600 Lieder (songs) as well as piano pieces, operas, and chamber music.

item as described

Dover has done a great job putting all these pieces together in only one edition. The size is portable, light, and the paper does not reflect the light ... only one thing: it does not provide bar numbers, so if you have to work the music detail you have to write them down.
