Customer Reviews

Trust me, you will not be disappointed.. I highly recommend this book to everyone. The story line continue to flow to the end.

I enjoyed this short story and the dynamic of Buffy and Sean's dysfunctional relationship. I don't think Sean is a bad guy...Buffy just knows how to push him over the edge. She is immature and selfish and despite being a drug-addict Sean is the more responsible of the two. But they do love each other just as much as they love getting high and that's what makes the story so interesting. It is definitely different and something new. I'm looking forward to seeing what these 2 crazy kids get into next and where it will take their relationship.

This was a great treat by Quiana. A well told story of a young couple fighting to overcome multiple issues. Dealing with life, death, drugs, and poverty, these two take on more at a young age than most people do in a life time.
